Unique singer and artist Andrea Pizzo leads audiences through this brand new EP of originals with a powerfully unusual and expressive voice, and a brilliant fusion of classic rock energy and spacious intimacy.

The central track and single from the project, Keep On Searching, makes for a fine introduction to Andrea's sound if you're new to his work. These uncommonly high sounding vocals meander through a plethora of ups and downs, venturing through softness into intensity, a mellow pace to a much quicker and more energizing rush.

Alongside of this, superb guitar work proceeds to grow more and more impressive as the song goes on. Throw in some notably infectious melodies, and a latter half that brings in the audience for an 'altogether now' moment of unity, and the whole thing makes certain to leave its mark the first time around.

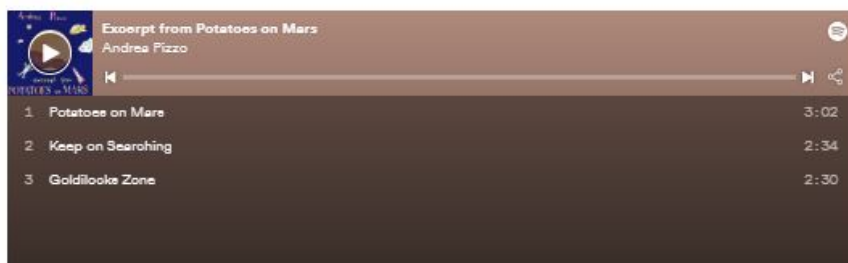

The rest of the EP has familiarity to it once you know the sound of Andrea's unique voice, though the songwriting veers off into fresh territories, and weaves around listeners a whole new realm and story in every case. We even get a dash of warming Americana for the opener.

Andrea Pizzo makes fine use of contrast, and consistently drives with a certain musical prowess that's endlessly impressive. The raw finish also furthers this natural, organic setup, and effectively reminds you that a live performance would be something well worth experiencing.

A story-teller through and through, with a sound that manages to be authentically original and interesting amidst today's musical landscape.

De Italiaanse Andrea Pizzo groeide dicht bij de natuur op en was altijd al geïnteresseerd in wetenschap en astronomie. Hij kijkt graag naar sciencefictionfilms, maar zijn grootste passie is muziek. Andrea studeerde natuurkunde aan de Universiteit van Genova en werkt als software-ingenieur, maar muziek blijft zijn grootste passie.

Raffaella Turbino werd net als Andrea ook in 1977 geboren en bracht haar jeugd door in de buurt van de kust, waar ze haar passie voor avonturen en het ontdekken van nieuwe dingen ontwikkelde. Ze studeerde af in Geesteswetenschappen aan de Universiteit van Genova en werkt als docent.

Het toeval bracht Andrea en Raffaella samen, waarna ze zichzelf muzikaal en privé bonden. Ze trouwden en wonen met hun dochter in Genova. In 2019 besloten Andrea en Raffaella om hun verschillende liefdes samen te brengen in een gemeenschappelijk expressief project, waarin ze samenwerken om teksten en muziek te schrijven, te zingen en video's te maken.

Deze uitdaging stelt Andrea in staat om iets nieuws te creëren, met behulp van de verzen van Raffaella. Om het muzikale plaatje uiteindelijk helemaal af te maken, vroeg Pizzo hulp van de bevriende Riccardo Morello en Roberto Tiranti (Labyrinth, Wonderworld), die Andrea de muzikale invulling bij de tracks gaven. Het werd uiteindelijk een album met nummers die gewijd zijn aan planeten en ruimteverkenningen. De liefdes van Andrea, gecombineerd op één album: 'Excerpt from Potatoes on Mars'.
